

Ares ~ God of War

Ares is the son of Zeus and Hera. He has a twin sister named Eris. He is the god of war and because he is so quick to anger and so violent, it is said that his parents did not even like him. He is a very dangerous god and an unreliable ally. Ares is involved with all battles and fights. Even though Ares is powerful, he can be driven off the battlefield by humans who prefer peace to fighting.

Ares is athletic and handsome and he often wears full battle armor. He has the ability to change forms and he killed Adonis while in the form of a boar. Ares has an ongoing relationship with Aphrodite even though she is married to another god, Hephaestus. Ares and Aphrodite have a son (Eros) and a daughter (Harmonia). His symbols include: the vulture, the spear, and the dog.
