

Names: _____

Due Date: Friday, December 19

Greek Mythology Trading Cards

During our study of Greek Mythology, you have read several myths. For this assignment, you will create ten Greek Mythology trading cards. You can choose your ten favorite mythological characters. They can be a combination of gods, goddesses, heroes, and creatures. You will need ten cards (provided by Mrs. Cozzi) to complete this activity. You must choose 10 from the following list of characters:

King Midas	Medusa	Achilles	Hercules	Apollo	Hades
Atlas	Perseus	Zeus	Hera	Poseidon	Pegasus
Athena	Odysseus	Pandora	Hermes	Demeter	Prometheus

Use the following information and attached rubric when creating your trading cards.

FRONT of the card MUST contain the following:

- The name of your god, goddess, hero, or creature written neatly and in color
- An illustration of your god, goddess, hero, or creature in color
- A colorful background or border (may contain symbols that represent your character)

BACK of the card MUST contain the following:

- Five facts about your mythological character (Some ideas could include: Where does your character come from? What are the characters extraordinary qualities, talents, or abilities? What is the origin or background of the character?)
- Your first and last name needs to be written neatly on the back of each card

Scoring Rubric	Score: 10-0
You have completed all 10 trading cards
You have the name of each character on the cards written neatly and in color
You have an illustration for each character
You have a colorful background or border on each card
Each card contains five facts about the character
Your work is neat and well planned
Your first and last name is on the back of each card
Total Points	