Story Skill: Main Idea & Details

Main Idea – the key point an author wants to make about a topic.

Supporting Details – facts or examples that support a main idea.

As you read, look for the main ideas, or the most important points the author makes. Look for supporting details that give facts or examples of the main ideas. Use a graphic organizer to help you see and summarize the relationship between a main idea and its supporting details.

Decoding Skill: VCCV Pattern Words & Parts

First, remove the affix (prefix or suffix). Then, locate the two consonants stuck in between two vowels. Break the word into syllables between the consonants.
